

Semantic Pipelines Editor

Overview

by

Artem Kelpé, Yan Doroshenko

Semantic Pipelines editor will be an application providing a web interface to the Semantic Pipelines framework in a form of an oriented graph as well as enabling user to execute pipelines in order defined by graph edges. Application will be capable of creating and modifying pipelines and configuring separate modules. Application will be integrated with the Semantic Forms library for automatic generation of module configuration from definition in form of ontology data.

